

Publishing Your Conference Presentation

Prof David Schultz

University of Manchester

Chief Editor (2008–present),
Monthly Weather Review

Special Issue co-Guest Editor (2010),
5th ECSS, Atmospheric Research

Author,
Eloquent Science: A Practical Guide to Becoming a Better Writer, Speaker, and Atmospheric Scientist.

About 50% of submissions to ECSS Special Issues are rejected.
Don't be one of them!

This free workshop is aimed at those who want to publish their research in peer-reviewed journals, such as the Special Issue of Natural Hazards and Earth System Science that will be assembled after the conference. It is designed for forecasters and early-career scientists, but anyone is welcome to attend.

Learn:

How the peer-review process works

Writing a title, abstract and introduction to capture your audience

How to avoid rejection

Behind the scenes of peer review

What are editors and reviewers thinking?

1900–2030 Sunday 13 September 2015

ECSS conference site (Sparkassensaal Wiener Neustadt)

Register online when you register for the conference.
Spaces are limited.