Membership fees

According to the resolution by the General Assembly on 5 November 2018, the annual ESSL membership fee for Institutional Full Members is:

€ (N x S) / 44, rounded upward to the next multiple of € 100

N is the nominal GDP per capita in Euro of the country in which the member has its seat (source EuroStat, if not available: World Bank)

S is the size category depending on the number of employees:

(1-199: S=1; 200-499: S=2; 500-999: S=3; 1000-1499: S=4; 1500-1999: S=5; >1999: S=6)

The membership fees are to be paid annually until 30 March of the respective calendar year to the bank account given below. The first membership fee is due on joining the association. Irrespective of the date of joining the association, the full annual membership dues have to be paid. In case of withdrawal, exclusion or death, there is no entitlement for reimbursement of membership fees (see also § 7 of the Articles of Association, available at www.essl.org). Voluntary withdrawal occurs with written statement to the Executive Board. Withdrawal is only possible for the end of a calendar year, within a term of notice of three months (see § 8).

--	------------------------------------

Please note that according to German tax regulations for ESWD-access VAT will apply for the membership fee. VAT will not be invoiced if the regulation on inner-EU services or similar regulations apply.

Tax deductibility of membership fees and donations

As a non-profit research organisation, the ESSL is also entitled to provide donators and members with formal contribution receipts for their donations and membership fees – which makes the donations and membership fees tax-deductible. The formal contribution receipt will be sent to each member on request after the end of the calendar year.
